Gospel

The good shepherd lays down his life for the sheep.

I lay down my life for the sheep.

I lay down my life in order to take it up again.

I lay it down of my own accord.

I have power to lay it down, and I have power to take it up again.

Extracts from John 10:11-18

For prayer and action...

Our real journey in life is interior;

it is a matter of growth,

deepening,

and of even greater surrender

to the creative action

of love and grace in our hearts.

BLESSED

Sunday 15 April was a special day for me and I wish to say how blessed I am to be surrounded and supported by our congregation.

I had given Baptism much prayerful consideration over many years and this culminated in a truly special service by Peter, Max, family and friends.

I offer my thanks to all as a "new" member of our Church.

Delia.

Church Fair 2018

On the last Saturday in October this year a Church Fair is being organised in the hall and tables will be available to the church community and the general community, to sell any products that they produce. This is a preliminary notice and updates will appear regularly, but we encourage you to consider being part of this fair, and also spread the word to friends who would like to be involved. If you don't want a table but are happy to be creative, the church will have a few tables (plants, produce, Christmas gifts etc etc) and you are invited to contribute to these. Proceeds raised will be put towards our Mission project and church maintenance.

For further information please talk with Delia Lane, Maureen Howland, Heather Gepp, Josie Keavy or Libby Dixon.
